

Financial Business Analyst

Description

Financial Analyst is responsible to provide controlling and major stakeholders with value-added business and financial analysis on trends on which sound business arguments/decisions can be made.

Responsibilities

- Cost trend analysis, highlighting areas of fluctuation against the budget but also anomalies to help the business take pro-active measures.
- Attend and participate in meetings with client stakeholders.
- Analyze customer monthly sales and product mix to be able to provide data-driven feedback to sales to understand customer buying behavior.
- Work together with product management discount behavior of certain customers and or product lines.
- Support to regional Finance lead with relevant business analysis.
- Responsible for gathering and documenting all requirements to implement data quality / consistency edit checks and analytic reports.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree in mathematics/statistics/finance or equivalent in experience.
- Understanding in business analyst related field required.
- Excellent analytics and advanced Microsoft Excel skills required.
- Excellent interpersonal/communication skills and confidence to work with different levels of management and drive discussions.
- Analysis and problem solving skills.

Hiring organization

Talenthed Inc

Employment Type

Full-time, Intern

Duration of employment

Full Time

Industry

Banking

Job Location

USA

Base Salary

$ 65,000 - $ 75,000

Date posted

December 6, 2021